L ife Biography of Mr. Suyn-Doc On Celebration of Life

Mr. Suyn-Doc On, a beloved husband, well-respected father, grandfather, and great-grandfather was born in GuangXi, China on January 20, 1924. He married Mrs. Yen-Ai On and together their marriage lasted more than half a century.

Mr. Suyn-Doc On started his career as a film operator and later evolved himself in a small trading business. Even though he had many responsibilities, he always found time to nurture his children with love and patience. He was a loving father who supported and guided his family based on strong moral values. When the family moved to Michigan in 1980, he was able to completely devote his time and effort into raising his family.

Upon relocating to Oakland California in 1982, Mr. Suyn-Doc On worked various jobs to provide for the family. He and his wife modeled a strong relationship based on love for each other to their children. Even when an argument would arise, one would yield to the other. Mr. and Mrs. Suyn-Doc On viewed their disagreements as making their marriage more interesting!

Mr. Suyn-Doc On had tender affection for his grandchildren and great-grandchildren, frequently babysitting and rewarding them with candies, cookies, and allowances out of love. He loved cooking with his wife for their family, something they enjoyed because both were great cooks!

Mr. Suyn-Doc On loved to play Mahjong with his friends, and loved to watch Chinese Opera. He and his wife would often watch Chinese Opera together and enjoyed singing along. His children and grandchildren would watch them with pure enjoyment.

Mr. Suyn-Doc On took his last breath on March 7, 2017 in Oakland, California, USA. He leaves his children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, relatives and friends with
