Cody Alexander Rowe

MAY 2, 1995 - FEB 17, 2017

Cody Alexander Rowe, 21, unexpectedly passed away on February 17, 2017 in Albany California. His wonderful spirit, enthusiasm, and life will be celebrated at a 6:30 p.m. memorial service, held on Friday, March 3, 2017 at Connection Community Church (C3), 3700 Chaha Rd., Rowlett, Texas. The service will be officiated by Pastor George Cooper.

He was born on May 2, 1995 in Dallas, Texas to Susan and Charlie Rowe. Cody graduated from Monterey High School in Monterey, California in May 2014, and attended Foothill College for two years while pursuing an undergraduate degree. Cody was passionate about helping others, contemplating life's mysteries, and was intent on changing the world around him for the better. He loved animals, enjoyed reading, conversing with others, playing guitar, and rock climbing.

Cody is survived by his mother Susan, sisters Samantha and Mikayely, his brothers Timothy, Matthew and Joshua Kempf, and other family and friends.

Cody is preceded in death by his father Charlie Rowe and his brother Zachary Rowe. Cody's family wishes to thank all who have supported and inspired him over the years, and ask for continued prayers and encouragement during this difficult time of loss. Cody will be deeply missed, and his legacy of kindness, inquisitiveness and larger-than-life dreams will always be remembered.
