Janis Elizabeth Thomas

MAR 15, 1957 - JAN 14, 2017

Janis Elizabeth Thomas was a loving wife, a caring mother, a beloved sister, aunt, niece, grandmother, cousin and friend. Janis was honest, kind-hearted and filled with boundless joy and grace. Though she was not in the military, she was definitely a soldier.

Janis was born to Victor Edward and Esther Elizabeth Richardson, on March 15, 1957 in Oakland, and was the first of her seven siblings to be born in California.

Janis was a successful career woman, who began working immediately after graduating from Skyline High School. She began working at the Franchise Tax Board, where she met and fell in love with her husband Harold Thomas. At the time, the Franchise Tax Board did not allow “office relations,” so Janis chose love over a job and resigned from her position at the FTB, and married Harold on January 1, 1976. Janis’ next job was with the State of California, for the Department of Health. She worked in both Berkeley and Richmond, CA, where she retired in October 2016 as the Facilities Manager.

Janis loved working in her garden, watching the cooking channel, being with her grandchildren, and from time to time playing Bid Whist with family and friends. She could run a Boston on you before you had time to trash talk!

Despite her own health discomforts, she wore the hat of caregiver, for her husband, mother, and aunt, prior to their passing. She loved you through the good, the bad, the ugly, and knew how to get her point across. When needed, she could lay hands on you.

Janis and Harold shared 34 amazing years of marriage together. They raised three phenomenal children, Michelle, Harold, Jr. and Matthew.

Janis made her transition peacefully at home, in the same room as her beloved husband, Harold, on January 14th 2017. She is survived by her son’s, Harold Christopher Thomas Jr., Matthew Alan Thomas, and daughter Michelle Denise

I think of you and I walking and exploring the hills behind us, I can't help but to smile and laugh. In the summers when the grass was brown and we'd find cardboard to sit on and slide down the hills, or our rocks. We'd each sit on one, lay back and let our imaginations soar. From John Marshall to King Estates...and should have been Skyline too. Thank you my friend for all of those memories and so much more. To Lorna, Victor, Kevin, Craig, Mark and Darren, you are all in my thoughts and prayers and I send so much love. To her sons, I send love and support. To her entire family, I send my love and comfort to each one of you. Sincerely, Maria Osborn
