Ulysses Smith

OCT 13, 1930 - OCT 18, 2016

Ulysses Smith (Smitty) was born October 13, 1930 in Nashville, Tennessee to Tom Smith Jr. and Gertrude Varner who preceded him in death. The family moved to Oakland, California where he graduated from McClymonds High School. Ulysses joined the Army in 1950 and was released with honorable discharge in 1952 beginning a career as a Sandblaster and Painter. He worked for 40 years. In 1953 he united with Ollie Blanche (deceased) and became the father to their three children, Ulysses Carlton (who preceded him in death), Sandra Michelle, and Darlene Adrian.

Ulysses loved to fish and spent a lot of time on his boat after retiring. He took food to vegetables to Allen Temple Garden weekly, listened to jazz, and made leather items for friends and family. Ulysses had a lot of friends and was always busy helping people and visiting friends. He lived his life the way he liked and was always fun to be around.

Ulysses leaves to cherish his memory his sister Mary Joe Westley of Chattanooga, Tennessee, his two daughters, Sandra and Darlene of Oakland, California. Grandchildren, Glenn and Adrian Walters, and Shane Smith, his girlfriend, Delorise Presley who was his companion for over 20 years and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Psalms 2.33

The lord is my shepherd; I shall not want

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures

He leadeth me beside the still waters

He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;

Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies

Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life as I shall dwell in the house of the Lord my God forever more.
