Leon W. Chan

NOV 14, 1973 - OCT 8, 2016

In Remembrance of Leon W. Chan
Loving Son, Brother, Husband, and Uncle
November 14, 1973 – October 8, 2016

Born in Taishan, China. Came to the U.S. at the age of 5. Youngest of three children of Chor Ho Chan and Siu Jung Chan. Brother of Nelson Chan and Florence Chan. Uncle to Zachary, Sophie, Jacob, Chloe, Tyler, and Casey. Soulmate and life partner of twenty years to Christine Wong. Graduated from Oakland High School in 1992, started independent home appraisal business in 2001, became a U.S. citizen in 2014, and earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Business at California State University, Hayward in August 2016.

Spending time with loved ones was Leon's priority. Whether throwing together an eight-course family meal in an hour or showing up for a 5 am golf outing with friends, he was always kind, dependable and driven by a strong generosity of spirit. Among his greatest passions were raising his three dogs and building a lifetime of love with his wife, Christine.

Family and friends are invited to attend the reception to be held at:

East Ocean Seafood Restaurant

1713 Webster Street

Alameda, CA 94501

Mr. & Mrs. Terry Tucker posted:

"Our thoughts and prayers are with the family & the love of his life Christine at this time. We are so sorry for your loss. We will miss his million dollar smile and the sound of his laughter. We were brought together through our dogs. Over the past few years we got to know you both so well. You have opened your home to us and shared meals together. That loving kindness is part of who you are and what we will always remember. All of the gang from Tuesday night pool will miss his political debating and his laughter. I don't remember ever meeting someone who was so kind and giving as Leon was. He had a HEART OF GOLD. With Our Deepest Sympathy, Terry & Sandy Tucker
