I am so so so sorry for your loss. Losing a child is devastating. There are a couple scriptures that have helped me in these very sad times. They are found at John 5:28 where it says "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice, and come out." The other one is found at Revelation 21:4 Where it says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. the former things have passed away." I hope these bring you comfort as they have me. Sincerely,Lisa

My heart goes out to you in the loss of your dear baby Jeremiah. Death is never easy, it pains our hearts. Our loving God Jehovah is aware of this and he comforts us by means of his word the Bible. Psalm 34:18 says: Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; May you be comforted by his words during your time of bereavement.

So very sorry to read of the tragic loss of your precious little Jeremiah. We may wonder why this tragedy was allowed to happen. Jesus well knew the Bible statement: "Time and unforeseen occurrence befall them all" [Ecclesiastes 9:11]. He knew that sometimes bad things just happen. The wonderful future resurrection hope is the promise found at John 11:11-44 Revelation 21:3,4 states that death will be no more. and pain will be no more, the former things will have passed away. Our Creator, Jehovah God, by means of his son Jesus, is going to undo the tragedies that touch our lives today.

Jeremiah was so full of life & loved to ride his scooter every day. We live next door to his auntie and we saw him almost daily. My husband tragically was at the scene immediately after the accident along with the family & called 911. Little Jeremiah is truly loved & will be missed but definitely NEVER forgotten. Love, The Wright Family R.I.P. Jeremiah Esera
