Jimmy Williams, Jr

SEP 13, 1957 - MAR 14, 2016

Jimmy Williams Jr. was born in Perry County, Alabama, on September 13, 1957 to his parents, the late Jimmie Williams and Minnie Mae Tubbs- Williams. He confessed Christ at an early age and was a God-fearing man the remainder of his life.

He attended schools in Bibb County Alabama where he received his education at Bibb County High School.

Shortly, thereafter, he joined the armed forces and was honorably discharged In 1977. Due to Jimmy's early experience accompanying his father on the job driving big rigs, it set a precedence and a passion in the transportation industry where he devoted 38 years. He was known for being a hard working ethical man and for taking pride in providing for his family.

Jimmy married his high school sweetheart, Janice Mack, and from that union one son, Jamaal and two daughters, Janel and Jalisa were born. He later married Sybil Ogden, and from this union one daughter, Chloe was born. He also gained and loved three stepsons, Cory, Cameron, and Calop.

Jimmy Williams Jr departed this earth, peacefully, at home with his loving wife and family on March 14, 2016. He now resides with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.
