Donna Webb

JUN 12, 1925 - FEB 8, 2016

Donna Jean Webb, 90, passed away peacefully at her home 2/8/2016 on a beautiful day in La Jolla, CA. Donna was born in Oakland, CA, attending Oakland HS and UC Berkeley (Zeta Tau Alpha; Phi Beta Kappa). She was preceded to heaven by her parents Harry and Esther Meyer, brother Richard Meyer, and her husband Gilbert A. Webb, MD. In San Francisco, Donna and Gil raised five children – Paul (Annemieke), Pam, Janet, Bruce and Bill (Lynn). Donna shared her love of visual and performing arts, archaeology, anthropology, nature, music, sports (49ers and Giants) and sweets with her children and eight grandchildren – Preston, Megan, Rachel, Jason, Justin, Roxanne, Michael, and Katarina. Donna was blessed as well with five great grandchildren-Andrew, Laker, Graham, Elaina Jean and Ava. Donna was a dedicated volunteer at San Francisco museums (De Young and Palace of Fine Arts) and a supporter of many national and community organizations, especially the SF ballet. She traveled the world extensively and enjoyed her vacation home at Lake Tahoe. Donna was a lifelong cat and dog lover, a member of the Golden Gate Collectors Club, and an avid reader. Donna was blessed with many friends with whom she shared wonderful dinners and cultural events. Her family wishes to thank the loving staff of Casa Pacifica and her many treatment providers over the years in San Francisco and the San Diego area for their wonderful care and friendship over the years. In lieu of flowers, it was her wish that friends and family continue charitable giving to the SF Ballet, De Young Museum, Palace of Fine Arts, American Cancer Society (breast cancer), American Heart Association, League to Save Lake Tahoe, and the SPCA. Viewing is 4 – 8 p.m. Thursday 2/18/16; Services will be Friday 2/19 at 11 a.m. followed immediately by interment, all at Chapel of the Chimes 4499 Piedmont Ave., Oakland, CA 94611 (510-768-8462).
