Janice Maoki

JAN 23, 1941 - SEP 5, 2015

Janice Yae Maoki (Maneki), 74, passed away on September 5, 2015. Janice was born in Honolulu, Hawaii where she spent her first 12 years. After a year in Brazil, the family relocated to Glendale, California. She attended the University of California at Berkeley and remained in the Bay Area after graduation. In 1973 Janice married Eloy M. Maoki and in 1976 they moved to Richmond, California where they lived until her passing. Janice was an educator in the Berkeley and Contra Costa county public schools for 43 years.

Janice survived her sister, Kay Ann, and son, Stephen, and she is survived by her husband, Eloy; daughters Andrea (Linh Nguyen, Sanae Thu, and Luc Ryu) and Karen; and siblings Carolyn Watanabe (Miiko and Greg) and Ted Maneki (Freya Maneki and Ken, Sandy, and David Ekimoto).

In lieu of flowers, please consider making a contribution to one of the following organizations that Janice supported throughout her life: Bay Area Rescue Mission, West Contra Costa Public Education Fund, or Habitat for Humanity.

The Young Family posted:

Dearest Maoki Family, It's so hard to find the words to ease Your pain in the loss of Your cherished loved one!, Please know the bible does have the right words and real hope for You and Your loved ones. Please turn to the Bible Book of John chapter 5: verses 28 & 29 and read the promise God holds out for all our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death. With deepest love and Sympathy in Your Great loss! Love A Family Friend
