Marissa posted:

All the grandkids would like to say Thank You to Gung Gung for everything he has done for us. Madeline – 10 Thank you for picking fruit for me and bringing all the crabs and clams to Thanksgiving dinner! Jacob – 10 Thank you for always taking us out for Chinese food. You always knew our favorite dishes to order. Jonathan – 11 Thank you for letting me feed the fish and taking me to golf camp. I'm thankful I got to spend time with you. Taylor – 19 Thank you for sharing your green thumb with us, We've always appreciate the persimmons, chiyotes, and guas that you send to Oregon. Marissa – 23 Thank you for taking me to McDonald's when I was a kid. You always let me play while you and PoPo had lunch. Thank you for always waiting until I came down to go to dim sum. You always knew my favorite foods to order, from the baos to the duck that you would send back home with us. I'm so thankful I got to spend so much time with you and I appreciate how much you've watched over us. Gung Gung, you will be greatly missed by all the grandkids. You will forever remain in our hearts.
