Maedine D. Turner passed away into God's hands at her home in Oakland, CA, on Sunday, August 3, 2014. She was 93 years old. Born on March 28, 1921, she is survived by her husband of 48 years, Robert W. Turner, and her sister Alice Hardin of Sonora, CA. Maedine was a loving and essential part of an extended family of siblings, cousins, nieces and nephews.

A native of Sonora, Maedine lived most of her adult life in Oakland, where she worked as an executive secretary for Kaiser Industries and Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Corporation. She gave generously of her time to various causes and charities. She served on the Oakland Museum Women's Board from 2000-2012. Prior to that, she served for many years as a volunteer for the Oakland Museum White Elephant Sale.

She was a longtime member of Corpus Christi Catholic Church. Her concern for others in need was evidenced by her support of Children's Hospital and Research Center in Oakland, CA.

For many years, she and her husband followed the Oakland A's Baseball Team and enjoyed their season ticket seats on the First Base Line.

In March 18, 2010, I met this wonderful, kind, loving, understanding, a great listener, and with an extremely vibrant personality I've ever known in all my life, Maedine D. Turner. I thank God everyday for placing her in my path of life, she's one of the best friend, a mother, an aunt, and a saint I've ever met. I felt that I belong into her circle of the most generous family I've known... Although there's no words that can explain the pain I'm in right now, I just want you to know, that it was my greatest opportunity to have met you, lived with you, be your assistant on anything you wished for me to do Maedine, I know I'll never meet another like you, your one in a million!!.. Rest in Peace, and someday, if God permits, I'll see you, hug you, and tell you how I missed you so much!!.. Thank You for everything you've taught me.. you were amazing teacher, mother and a best of friend anyone could ask for!! I love you Maedine with all my heart!!.. Remy Ilek
