Henry R. Lowman

OCT 15, 1918 - MAY 18, 2014

Henry Ridgway Lowman, 95, a longtime resident of Alameda California, passed away on May 18, 2014. Born in San Francisco, California on October 15, 1918, Henry served in WWII and was a dedicated hard working Millman of 50 plus years for Truitt & White Lumber. He is survived by his wife of 62 years, Hazel Violet Lowman. He is also survived by his brother, Lawrence Lowman, five grandchildren, Danny Valencia, David Valencia, Laura Salazar, Jennifer Alvarado, Jacquelyn Tyler, and five Great Grandchildren. He was a loving Brother, Husband, Stepfather, and Grandfather. Henry will always be remembered for his endless humor and wit, his generous and giving heart, and for his truly humble and loving soul. May he rest in peace with all of his loved ones that have gone before him.
