Oh my GOD! I just found out. I cannot believe it. I was so in love with you as a friend, a woman, a person, a business partner. This is honestly the most devastating news I have received to this day. I am sorry we lost touch. I was not aware you had a daughter. You were the only person who understood. Part of me goes with you. I will see you again. Call me 510 566 2780.

Camille, I remember when we met in elementary school. So young to think a small thing like sharing the same birthday month, made you extra cool...lol. You didn't forget my birthday, that's for sure. I remember hanging out with you, and our friends at E.W. School. You never turned a friend away. Camille, first you are God's child. When you were born, He loaned you to your parents, to your family and to all of us. I admire you in seeing all the joy you brought to so many...just having known you. Thank you for your friendship and thank God for giving us this time with you. Orchids are PURE, TRUE and some say they represent HOPE in each bud. Like the Orchid, you were and are true and pure (genuine). Then, now and forever your love will grow, shine, and live through your daughter Aliya and all of your family. In this time, HOPE will blossom like the flower...and like you did for all of us. To the Family, my heart and prayers are with you at this time. I pray God takes away the sadness and your treasured memories bring you a peaceful calm.
