Mrs. CWhat a life! You were a true Irish aviation pioneer and a wonderful wife, mother and nanna. You have made a mark on all of us with your wry smile, your keen sense of humor and your love of family (even the in-laws). The world was a better place with you in it. Happy trails. Your Maggot

To Rick and the Campobasso family – thinking of you guys this weekend. What a great person your mom was. In 87 while touring Ireland, she and your dad hosted us for a few days – she made us feel so welcomed. Then in 98 when we took my dad to Ireland – she and her sister drove up to visit us. We will miss her.

My Sweet Mom, I will always cherish the years we spent living near each other, I feel that is when we moved from mother-daughter to really special friends. I thank you for all you did for your family, which always was your first concern. You will be so missed by so many. Happy you can now rest in peace now with Dad and your sisters. I love you, Chelle
