From all her sisters across the world ... we will miss her now ... but we will see her again ... through God's plan ... Blessing to all her family, friends, relatives, who loved her dearly. Thank you for your support during her illness. She lived a long life full of praises, blessing, appreciations and love to everyone everywhere. We must continue to carry the torch of LOVE as she did ... full of grace. Thank you Lord for her life. Peace to all ... loving shared ..... Amen!

When I visited my mom at KPACC, I met Marie. She was often asleep because she was in a lot of pain or resting. But she was a very caring and a beautiful person, who always smiled at me and remembered me and held my hand. She loved to put on her makeup and have her hair done by her niece, Karen. She had stacks of books, crossword puzzles and newspapers to occupy herself. We got to hear her life story, a very interesting one about her bringing relatives to California from Tennessee, her teaching, her husbands and boyfriend, etc. She was such a special person. She was always so gracious and caring. And she had a cute sense of humor, too.
