Javier, It was a pleasure to have known you and work with you, you always came in with a smile and such a positive attitude! I will miss you coming in and saying to me (Miss Liz, how are you?), you always made me smile. I will remember you just like the last day I saw you before going on maternity leave, you were so full of life, happy and looking healthy with that positive attitude of yours that made others think positive too! I told my husband, one thing I look forward too when returning to work is seeing how my buddy (Javier) is doing? Yes I referred to Javier as my buddy when ever I spoke of him to my family, It's funny that when ever I did they all knew who I was talking about. On thing I do regret is when I came back from maternity leave in late August and found out that you were going through some health problems again, I did not give you a call, but I figured that you would pull through it again just like before and I would be able to show you my new baby boy's picture just like when I used to show you my daughters pictures, and again thank you and your wife for that lovely white pink and orange polka dot dress you gave my daughter for her first birthday! Javier, I will miss you dearly, there are some people in life you come across that touch you in such a special way, you were truly one of them!-Miss Liz
