Eda Morandin & Family posted:

To the Paganelli Family, Our sincere and deepest sympathy on the loss of Lida. Our mom, Eda Morandin, received the news just today, and we wish to express how sorry we were to have missed the Rosary. Although circumstances do not permit us to attend the funeral service, please know that we will have Lida in our thoughts and prayers. Lida was a very good friend to my mom and a truly loving Godmother to me. Her generosity of special gifts to me when I was younger allows me to recall her beautiful smile and the joy expressed as she watched me unwrap the packages. I am very sorry that our family was unable to keep in touch throughout the years. With fond and loving memories, and may your family always be blessed, Eda Morandin and girls (Suz-Anna, Linda and Doreen)
