Corie Nicole Dziobek

NOV 14, 1984 - NOV 12, 2019

We were hit hard by the sudden and tragic loss of our daughter, sister, and fiancée, Corie Dziobek on November 11, 2019. A one-of-a-kind individual, she is truly missed. She was in the prime of her life and was taken from us just three days shy of turning 35 years old. She was universally loved and heralded as a sweet and kind woman, a dedicated educator, and fun-loving adventurer. She loved all children and cared for them just as deeply as if they were her own. She also loved her two dogs, which she spoiled regularly. She was a fashionista and a bit of a shopaholic, but that just contributed to her charm. She had a heart of solid gold, and we will love her eternally.

Corie- peace be in heaven and become a star to shine and for your family to look up in heaven. You were loved by your brother Derek and mom and dad. You will be forever missed. May you fill heavens with your smile and laughter. Don't shop too much in heaven. God bless you !!!
