Eric Charles Sinn
July 20, 1983 — July 22, 2015

Eric, a resident of Hayward, California, passed peacefully from this life on July 22.

Eric is survived by his mother Chris, father Bill, and sister Karen. He is also survived by many loving aunts, uncles, and cousins. He was a graduate of Bishop O'Dowd HS in Oakland (2001) and UC Santa Cruz (2005), majoring in American Studies. He also took coursework in landscaping at Merritt College in Oakland.

Eric was employed at various jobs in the last several years, including East Bay Nursery, Berkeley Horticultural Nursery, Grand Avenue Ace Hardware, and Home Depot. His knowledge of plants and fluency in Spanish served him well.

Eric was known for his enthusiasms and interests. These included his love of plants and horticulture, old movies-especially horror and noir- and books- Oh Yes, the BOOKS. He was also willing to discuss the plot variations and underlying psychological character motivations of Archie and Jughead comics, or any B movie.

He loved the culture and people of South America. He studied abroad at the Universidad de Concepcion in 2004. He went back to South America traveling on his own after graduation, visiting several countries and making new friends. He was a fan of the Chilean futbol team, especially when playing Argentina, and had a collection of soccer jerseys from many South American teams. Eric loved visiting museums when traveling or at home. He was a member of the SF Asian Art Museum.

Eric's easygoing personality and sweet disposition will be missed by all who knew him.

A Memorial Service and Celebration of Life will be held:

Please accept my sincerest condolences due to your most recent loss. Grief can be especially hard to bear. Nevertheless, God promises that he will "wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more... the former things have passed away."- (Revelation 21:4) I hope that this will provide you with comforting thoughts.
