Doug and I were born on the same day. We went to the same schools from the second grade through high school. He was always the best of friends to me and to those around us. Such a bright man, and yet, he made us all feel comfortable and equal. Thank you, Doug, for allowing me to be among your special friends. I think of you, and your family so fondly. A. Jeffrey DeHart

Doug and I interacted as part of our jobs for years but got to put business aside and go out and have some fun with a group of friends at NAIC meetings. Doug was great at turning a phrase and had a wry sense of humor that would take you by surprise. He was interested in what others had to say and always had some good stories of his own to share. We've missed his company these last couple of years and now I am sorry to hear this news. It was a pleasure to know Doug and my sympathy goes to his wife and loved ones. Joel Laucher
