I would like to give my condolences to the Cotton Family. I've known Eric since the 5th grade. We attended Emerson Elementary School in the 60's . I remember walking to school with (lil sis Kim) and the twins eating candy , laughing and doing what kids did to and from school walking down Shafter. I enjoyed playing basketball /football with Eric , I always picked him on my team ! We also attended Oakland Tech (class of 76),he was a good athlete and always a good friend. I will always remember that laugh that he had , May he rest in peace . Anthony (Tony) Mason

Eric has found eternal rest. When someone you love becomes a memory, that memory becomes a treasure. May you all treasure all of your memories of Eric. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Matthew 5:4. I will continue to lift my Cotton family in prayer. God's love and grace are always with you. With love, Kim Fields
