I first met Alan back in 2008 when my wife and I opened a bike shop in one of his buildings. I knew right away that he was a good guy. In the 11 years we had the shop it was always a pleasure to get a visit from Alan. He was such a rad dude, one of the coolest people I ever met. Very, very sad to hear of his passing today. Hope to see him on the other side.

Just learned of Alan's passing yesterday. Had no idea Alan had been sick.Alan and I were roommates in law school and thereafter until I got married in 1971. Alan was a true friend and we had a chance to reminisce at my 75th birthday party and exchange anecdotes about our younger years. Old friends are always the best. Both my wife Marsha and I will truly miss Alan.Doug Haydel

So sad at Alan's passing. Much too young. Classmates at Berkeley and friends for 54 years. Fellow hashers at the Theta house. Enjoyed visits at lunches and at the Haas Galas. Will be greatly missed. Best to Kyle and Megan.John Natt

Kyle I am so sorry about your Dad's passing. He was truly one of the good guys, I will miss him. This is Glenn. We met at the property on E16th St a while back. Your dad gave us a chance and rented to us. We were very grateful, but more impressed with the person my wife and I met in your dad - he was special and the world is lesser place without him I MEAN THAT SINCERELY. Candice & Glenn O'Keefe

Alan and I became friends in law school. We remained friendly over the years. I knew his brother, who I met in New York. Alan was a wonderful guy and I'll always remember him fondly. Whenever I called him at his office I'd tell his secretary it was Neil Young calling. It was a joke between us for years. In our law school days, we both hashed at the Theta Sorority and on the weekends we'd take some of the woman into San Francisco. When I left the bay area, my sister became friendly with Alan and retained him from time to time. I just found out he passed away and I'm feeling low. So long Alan, my old friend. Dan Lang 060521

Alan Spanier was one of the finest persons I have known. He was a great friend---full of good humor, caring, insight, wisdom, and humiity. We will all miss him in many ways.

Andrea, I know Alan from high school and have had minimal contact with him. But he was randomly on my mind recently and I reached out to him. What were the circumstances of his passing? Thanks, David Deutsch
