I am going to miss Harold. He was a very friendly and loving man. He was always very pleasant and thoughtful. He even went out of his way to buy my dog a jacket for xmas! I met him and his wife when they first moved into Stoneridge Condos! We were one of the very first families that moved into the new complex back in the 90s. I use to share most of my baked goods with him and deliver them to his door. He would always joke with me about "getting together", we always laughed about that! Rest in Peace my dear friend.
