Dear Mrs. Woodrow, You were my Grandmother's, Stella C. Moore best friend and she loved you very much. I always enjoyed having you at my home and I always got a "kick out of you" when you complimented my gumbo year after year. You and my Grandmother inspired me and with each year, I am proud to say that my gumbo got even better with each passing year. Also, you and my Grandmother could wear a hat! Ironically, years later I began to wear hats too and worn them proudly and beautifully like both of you. Thank you for being a Dear friend to my Grandmother. Now the two of you can pick up right where y'all left off at. Please hug and kiss her for me and my Father Jack Moore. Rest in Heaven, Robin Moore Stella Moore's Granddaughter
