Graciela Teresa De Pierris

JAN 1, 1950 - AUG 20, 2024

Graciela De Pierris, born on January 1, 1950, in Argentina, passed away leaving behind a legacy of wisdom, passion, and love. Graciela's journey took her from her homeland to the United States, where she graduated from the University of California, Berkeley, and earned her doctorate in Philosophy. Her academic pursuits led her to a distinguished career as an educator at Stanford University in Palo Alto, CA.

Graciela's life was enriched by her deep appreciation for art museums, opera, and travel. Among her many adventures, Kyoto, Japan, held a special place in her heart. She visited as often as she could, captivated by the beauty of the cherry blossoms.

Graciela is survived by her sister Marta and her brother Carlos, who will forever cherish her memory. Her intellectual contributions and her zest for life will be remembered by all who knew her.
