Wayne Harry Koike

MAR 3, 1953 - AUG 20, 2024

Wayne Harry Koike March 3, 1953 – August 20, 2024

Wayne Harry Koike was born on March 3, 1953 in Alameda, California to Yasuharu and Frances Koike. Wayne was fourth and youngest brother to Mark, Glenn, and Dean.

Because Wayne was born on the traditional Japanese holiday called “Girl’s Day”, Wayne’s parents were hopeful to finally have a baby girl they planned to name “Jane”. To their surprise, Wayne made his appearance instead.

Wayne grew up in Alameda and attended Buena Vista United Methodist Church, Porter School, and graduated from Alameda High School in 1971.

Some of Wayne’s childhood activities included becoming a Boy Scout, playing baseball for the East Bay Indians, playing on the church basketball team, learning judo, playing the trombone, and participating in football and track in high school.

Wayne attended Chico State University and received a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting in 1975. After graduation, Wayne worked as a manager at Sanwa Bank. In 1978, Wayne decided to go to Japan to pursue a degree in International Studies at Sophia University in Tokyo. To support himself, Wayne became a part-time English Conversation teacher as part of the International Friendship Center. Wayne returned to the U.S. in 1980 and worked for Sanwa Bank in San Francisco and Los Angeles.

After settling back in Northern California, Wayne held jobs at Atari, Health Net, and a few other HMO’s before becoming the CFO of California Pacific Medical Center Foundation until his retirement in 2013.

MAR 3, 1953 - AUG 20, 2024

After meeting Frances Lew at a party, Wayne and Frances were married on July 6, 1985. Their daughter Michelle was born in 1988, and Melissa followed in 1990. Wayne was a devoted family man and fully supported all their daughter's basketball and volleyball activities.

Family was extremely important to Wayne. Our extended family shared weekly Sunday dinners in Alameda until Wayne's mother, Frances, passed away in 1996. To this day the family gathers for every birthday, holiday, or special occasion, and Wayne was always first in line for the food.

Wayne also enjoyed multiple trips to Hawaii with extended family members as well as cruising and traveling to China, Japan, Europe, and various cities in the U.S.

Wayne was a faithful churchgoer and served as church treasurer for many years at BVUMC. He organized the annual church golf tournament, helped to launch the church youth basketball program, took over as head chef for the annual church teriyaki chicken BBQ, spearheaded the church mochi-making New Year event, and served as a member of the church gardening team.

Wayne enjoyed playing golf with a group of friends called the "Whiners". Although he never won a tournament, the life-long friendships he made with the group were the most important part for Wayne.

Wayne also picked up playing pickleball in recent years and enjoyed the fun and camaraderie of the game. Wayne was a big fan of the Giants, the A's, the Warriors, and the 49ers, and enjoyed attending games whenever he could.

Wayne is survived by his wife, Frances Lew-Koike, daughter Michelle (Gabby), daughter Melissa (Chris), beloved grandchildren Joey, Emma, and Frankie, brothers Glenn (Terri), Dean (Lesley), cousins Jeani (Marcell), and Kenneth (Ran), as well as many loving extended family members and countless friends.

Wayne was a thoughtful and generous man of good humor with a strong faith in God, as well as a humble leader with a kind and loving spirit. He will always be a shining example to his family and friends and will forever be greatly missed.

Some of my fondest memories include our summertime trips to Alameda to be with the Koike and Nakamoto families. The Wayne I remember was always quiet and cordial. The last time I had a chance to visit with him was during their family visit to South Louisiana in 2009. We had such a great time. Wayne will be sadly missed! Sincere and heartfelt condolences and prayers go out to the entire family!

had many of the same classes and teachers, high school schedules meant we usually had different classes, different teachers, and different periods. After high school Wayne went away to college at Chico, I stayed home and went to SF State. Wayne went to Japan, I got married for the first time. After he returned home to Alameda as adults, we did play slow pitch softball together for many summers, but our paths were no longer as close as they once were when we were young. On occasion, throughout our adult years, our lives crossed paths for this or that event. Although no longer as close as we once were, I will always considered Wayne one of my cherished lifelong friends. Keith Nomura
