Gebeyehou, Sioum

JAN 20, 1939 - NOV 14, 2025

Sioum Gebeyehou, a beloved husband, father, and respected member of the Oakland community, passed away peacefully on November 14, 2025, at the age of 86.

Born on January 20, 1939, in Ethiopia, Sioum's journey carried him across continents, where he built a life rooted in hard work, integrity, and devotion to family. After immigrating to the United States, he pursued a career as a professional engineer with Pacific Gas and Electric (PG&E). His dedication and expertise left a lasting impact on colleagues and the communities he served, ensuring safe and reliable energy for countless families.

Beyond his professional accomplishments, Sioum was cherished for his warmth, generosity, and unwavering commitment to those around him. He was a man who believed in the power of community, often offering guidance, support, and friendship to neighbors and friends alike. His presence was a source of strength and kindness, and his legacy will continue to inspire those who knew him.

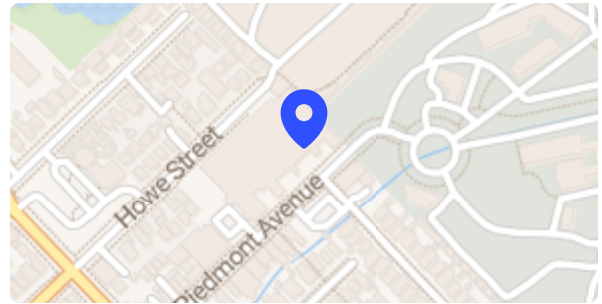

Sioum is survived by his loving wife, who stood by his side through every chapter of life, and his two devoted sons, who carry forward his values of perseverance and compassion. His family, friends, and community will remember him not only for his achievements but for the love and wisdom he shared so freely.

A memorial service will be held in Oakland, California, where family and friends will gather to celebrate his remarkable life and honor the memory of a man who touched so many hearts.
