“ Your smile brought light into a room and the lives you touched. That laugh brought joy in the midst of tears. Your compassion for others did not see age, gender or color, but you left footprints on their lives. You was a friend when I needed a shoulder to lean on with words of encouragement and support. Your smile, laughter and that heart of caring is missing. Sweet rest dear brother, your sisters and brothers love you and will carry your memories Forever In Our Hearts.
