“ I am still speechless about her loss! However, I will always remember her as one of the kindest and sweetest person I was given the privilege to know. At times, it feels strange to call home and not hear about "holding 29" It was our joke, when I call. I apologize for not being about to make it to California, never the less I have such wonderful memories that will last my lifetime. This morning I woke up with the realization that she has gone home. Job well done Etta Faye Lindsay. You are and always be missed. From your DC daughter Sharon Joanne Chambers
