“ To the Brown family, my uncle was so precious and loving to all his family. He has a plethora of pictures that he treasured to share and lift up his love ones to all that he came in contact with. The Brown family men from Pawhuska, OK were talented in music, arts, personality and ALL were good-looking, GQ and always dressed to the nines! What a time we had when Uncle Ivy would come to KC! We showered him with love and gifts and was sad when he would leave to go home. We also enjoyed our visits to Oakland/San Francisco always leaving with a smile.

May we continue as legacy with that loving spirit.

“ Uncle Ivy, thank you so much for the family history you shared with me. Your legacy and that if our family continues. You reminded so much of my father Cecil and Uncke Sheridan. “Those Brown Boys” from Pawhuska, Oklahoma were known for being handsome, musicians and being great dancers. Rest well.
