“Grandpa,

Thank you. Thank you for teaching me it's a lot easier to grow tomatoes than I thought it was and for giving me confidence that I can actually grow my own fruits and vegetables. Thank you for encouraging me to make chile verde for the first time and discovering how much I actually really love it. Thank you for playing with your great grandchildren and for making every visit fun. Some of your jokes I will never forget. :) Thank you for going out of your way to come visit with us. At least I know that I got to share my home with you and grandma, even if just for only in those moments. Thank you to you and Grandma for consistently thinking of my sister and I, year after year throughout our childhood and never missing a birthday or Christmas. Thank you for making us all feel like each one of us is important.

I wish we had a little more time with you. But at least I know you're in good hands. My husband, the girls, and I will miss you.

“Condolences to the Sandoval Family. Paul and Virginia were good friends from back in the late '60's and throughout the years. Paul had a sense of humor that no one could match up to. You will be truly missed. Rest in Paradise my friend.
